

The Epistles of Paul to the Corinthians

II Corinthians-Chapter 10

I. In Defense of Me

A. Timid or bold? (1-2)

B. Living in the world but not like the world, fighting with spiritual weapons (3-6)

II. Look Beyond the Surface

A. We all belong to Christ (7-9)

B. Behavior in person versus letters (10-11)

C. No comparison (12-16)

D. Boast only in the Lord (17-19)

Summary

Paul finds the need to defend his work in the church and leadership in this chapter. He warns the church to see themselves differently from that of the world and to understand that his assertive letters must have a different tone than his gentler behavior in person.

Key Point:

Study Questions:

1. Why is Paul more bold in his letters than in person?
2. What does “boast in the Lord” mean in this chapter?

Notes: