

The Epistles of Paul to the Corinthians

II Corinthians-Chapter 11

- I. False Teachings that Harm
 - A. The church is the bride of Christ (1-2)
 - B. Putting up with false teachings (3-4)
- II. Sacrifices for the Church (5-11)
- III. False Teachers Reaping What They Sow (12-15)
- IV. The Testimony of a “Fool” (16-33)

Summary

Paul testifies to the church about his suffering and sacrifice for Corinth while criticizing them for tolerating false teaching. He warns them about their weakness in allowing those who are not followers of Jesus Christ into their midst.

Key Point:

Study Questions:

1. What does Paul mean when he talks about his “boast” this time?
2. What lesson does Paul stress here that he is repeating yet again?
3. Do you think Paul is concerned because of the church’s lack of faith or knowledge?

Notes: