

The Epistles of Paul to the Corinthians

II Corinthians-Chapter 7

I. Welcomed Repentance

- A. Remembering reverence (1)
- B. Glad for the church's repenting (2-4)
- C. Persecution in Macedonia; God's response (5-7)
- D. Relieved and encouraged – Titus' witness (8-16)

Summary

Paul has a very positive message in this letter as he thanks the church for its support. Yet, he reminds them that some admonishment is still necessary in order that they may be led to repentance. He expresses joy over Titus' ministry.

Key Message:

---

Study Questions:

1. Why do you think Paul's letter brings sorrow to its readers? What do you think his comment in the 9th verse indicates?
2. What is it about Titus that brings joy to Paul?

Notes: